CT Colonography cannot be performed if you have had abdominal surgery or a colon biopsy within the last 14 days. It is not intended for the detection of polyps less than 6 mm in size.

1. Why are you having this examination? Please explain below

________________________________________________________________________

2. Are you currently having abdominal symptoms such as pain, change in bowel habits, bleeding? If yes, please explain below

☐ NO  ☐ YES

3. Have you ever had a colon polyp, colon biopsy, or colon surgery? If yes, please explain below

☐ NO  ☐ YES

4. Have you ever had a traditional (optical) colonoscopy? ☐ NO  ☐ YES, when: __________

Please explain findings below:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Patient’s Name (print) Date Time

Patient’s Signature Date Time

Clinical Staff Name (print) Date Time

Clinical Staff Signature Date Time